YEAR OF SAINT JOSEPH – Quiet morning of Prayer

From this introduction of his letter, Patris Corde [With a Father's Heart], Pope Francis explores some of the aspects of St Joseph that are close to his heart. He begins with St Joseph as "a beloved father". "The greatness of St Joseph is that he was the spouse of Mary and father of Jesus. In this way, he placed himself, in the words of St. John Chrysostom, "at the service of the entire plan of salvation." Then St Joseph as "a tender and loving father" "As the Lord had done for Israel, so Joseph did with Jesus; he taught him to walk, taking him by the hand; he was for him like a father who raises an infant to his cheeks, bending down to him and feeding him. In Joseph, Jesus saw the tender love of God. Joseph, then, teaches us that faith in God includes believing that God can work even through our fears, our frailties and our weaknesses. Also Joseph is "an obedient father". Through the difficult decisions Joseph had to make he realised that "obedience made it possible for him to surmount his difficulties and spare Mary" any shame. "In his role as head of the family, Joseph taught Jesus to be obedient to his parents, in accordance with God's command." "An accepting father" means "Joseph accepted Mary unconditionally. He trusted the angel's words. Often in life, things happen whose meaning we do not understand. Our first reaction is frequently one of disappointment or rebellion...only as a result of acceptance, this reconciliation, can we begin to glimpse a broader history and a deeper meaning." Pope Francis describes him as a "creatively courageous father." "If the first stage of all true interior healing is to accept our personal history and embrace even the things in life that we did not choose, we must now add another important element: creative courage." As we read the story of Christ's birth we may wonder why God did not act in a more direct and clear way. Yet God acts through events and people. Through several trials St. Joseph gives life to the new born child – finding a stable to sleep in, escaping Herod because of a dream. "God acted by trusting in Joseph's creative courage." We are challenged to do the same. Pope Francis goes on to describe Joseph as "a working father." "Joseph was a carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family. From him, Jesus learned the value, the dignity and the joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one's own labour." Pope Francis reminds us all that whatever work we do we participate with God to become creators of the world around us. "How can we speak of human dignity without working to ensure that everyone is able to earn a decent living?...The loss of employment that affects so many of our brothers and sisters, and has increased as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, should serve as a summons to review our priorities. Let us implore Saint Joseph the Worker to help us find ways to express our firm conviction that no young person, no person at all, no family should be without work!" Finally, St Joseph is "a father in the shadows." "Fathers are not born, but made. A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking responsibility to care for that child." To love a child is to give it all the possibilities the world can offer. It means allowing freedom of decisions. St. Joseph "never made himself the centre of things. He did not think of himself, but focussed instead on the lives of Mary and Jesus."
