Kings and Kingdoms

After three centuries of persecution the early Christians breathed a deep sigh of relief when the Roman Emperor, Constantine, became a Christian himself. But that really was a mixed blessing! Becoming a Christian and conforming to Christian values and ways of behaving gradually became the expected thing, often imposed by the authorities. The early centuries images and preferred description of Jesus as the Good Shepherd were replaced by images of Jesus as a Ruler and King, clothed in purple, often seated on a throne. Leaders within the Christian communities were drawn into dressing and living as rulers and lords. The vast majority of Christian people through many centuries saw themselves simply as servants called to obey the voices of authority, and leadership was often exercised through oppression and punishment. Many of the leaders, thank God, did read and reflect on the words and actions of Jesus and offered leadership in a very different way. The secular world, in the main, followed the way of the Roman Empire [and the Greeks, Egyptians and Persians before them] by imposing law and order, using authority, power and punishment to control society.

There is something in our human nature that looks for that way of living; we tend to operate that way if we're "in charge"; we expect, sometimes at least, to be told what to think, what to do when we're not "in charge". In more recent times, I suggest since the invention of printing, and the resultant increased opportunities for education, people have the ability to think for themselves. History recognises the "Age of Enlightenment", a movement within the western world at least that lessened the ability of the powerful people in Church and State to impose their way on ordinary people. And, of course, the coming of the digital age with its explosion of information has further diluted the authority and power of the few to control the rest. Nevertheless Kings and Emperors continued to impose their authority and rule. In recent centuries there have been revolutions and violent suppressions from Paris in the 1790s through to our own time. There aren't many ruling kings enforcing their will on their subjects in today's world...but there is a movement across the world that reminds us that there are some leaders who prefer to lead by imposing law and order, using power and punishment to control people, by reducing complex human issues to simple "dos and don'ts". Many millions of people accept/prefer leadership in the style of Vladimir Putin, Donald Trump, and in the last few weeks the newly elected Jair Messias Bolsonaro in Brazil [a former parachute regiment captain].

In the face of confusion, the constant battle for loyalty and faithfulness, but mainly as a call to see the world and our lives and families within that world in a very different way, Pope Pius XI established in 1925 the Feast we celebrate today – Christ the King! Initially the Feast was celebrated, I think, with mixed messages. Jesus was presented as the alternative king to all the other rulers of history and modern times, but often presented just as a new ruler to be honoured and obeyed, ruling from on high, with all of us just called to be loyal subjects. But the words of Jesus Himself are crystal clear "I am a King said Jesus, but not of this world!"

Jesus as shepherd is indeed the true way in which he comes to us as king. He is one who cares for us rather than rules us, He lifts us up and carries us rather than being carried about, He seeks us when we are lost rather than commands us to obey, He lays down his life to protect us rather than order us fight for Him. We have a king who did not wave to adoring crowds but stretched out his arms on a cross. We have a king who did not seek our adulation and who did not dress in fine clothes but who was stripped naked, spat upon, beaten and abused. Jesus is a king because of love, because of forgiveness, because of mercy, because of peace, because of outreach. He is a king because of his suffering and death, because of his faithfulness, because of his total commitment to the Father, because of the fullness of the Spirit within him, a spirit he shares with all of us.

Father Hal

Plenary Council 2020: Let's Have Our Say!

Yes the invitation is genuine: those who are gradually putting together the agenda for the Plenary Council first session in October 2020 [two years away] want to hear every voice. They want to hear your voice, the story of your experiences of Church. They want to hear your ideas and hopes for a Church that really brings GOOD NEWS each day to our country, Australia.

Send your thoughts and hopes directly to the addresses in bold type below. Better still, make some time to have conversations about the key question: What is God asking the Church to be in [and to bring to] Australia in these times? Conversations among family members and with friends will not only produce more wisdom, they'll bind us more closely together through our listening and speaking honestly.

Have your say – send your thoughts:

Today's Psalm

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed;
the Lord has robed himself with might,
he has girded himself with power.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted.
Holiness is fitting to your house,
O Lord, until the end of time.

The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old.
From all eternity, O Lord, you are.

ENTRANCE SONG: Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

GA371/AOV1-191

Alleluia! sing to Jesus!
His the sceptre, his the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph, his the victory alone;
Hark! The songs of peaceful Sion thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus out of ev'ry nation
hath redeem'd us by his blood.

Alleluia! King eternal, thee the Lord of lords we own:
Alleluia! Born of Mary,
earth thy footstool, heav'n thy throne:
thou, within the veil, has entered,
robed in flesh, our great High Priest:
thou on earth both priest and victim
in the Eucharistic feast.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory be to God on high;
alleluia! to the Saviour who has won the victory
alleluia to the Spirit, font of love and sanctity, Alleluia! Alleluia to the triune majesty.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: CDs Year B p.82

Response: The Lord is king! He is robed in majesty.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: CW554

Alleluia, Alleluia Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

*Refrain: I will give you living water!
Shade to rest under; strength to your heart!
Grow deep within me filled by my Spirit,
My burdens are easy, my life it is yours!*

We have been with the lonely!
To the hungry we've given Your Bread.
We now come with all our hope and dreams
To rest awhile with you!

Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, We bless you,
We adore you, We glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world;
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
You alone are the Lord,
You alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen

and Resurrection you have set us free.

COMMUNION SONG:

I Am the Light of the World AOV1-176

*Refrain:
I am the light of world, says the Lord,
They who follow me will have the light of life.*

Arise, says the Lord, 'Have no fear within you,
For in my presence there will be no darkness.
I am the light of the world.

Walk in the light, there is no cause to stumble;
I have come to light the path before you.
I am the light of the world.

Listen to my words; they are from the one who sent me: For you, my friends, are called to share God's glory. You are the light of the world.

RECESSIONAL SONG: Glorious in Majesty GA370

Glorious in majesty, Holy in his praises, Jesus, our Saviour and our King. Born a man, yet God of old, Let us all adore him: Filled with the Spirit, let us sing.

*Refrain: Living is to love him, serving him to know his freedom
Come along with us to join the praise of Jesus.
Come to Jesus now. Go to live his word rejoicing.*

Victory he won for us, Freeing us from darkness, Dying and rising from the dead. Living with the Father now, yet he is among us:
We are the body, he the head.

One in love, as family, Living with each other, Gladly we share each other's pain. Yet he will not leave us so, soon he is returning,
Taking us back with him to reign.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
